HOUSE COMMITTEE CHAIRS: CONSIDERATIONS, DECISIONS, AND ACTIONS AS ONE CONGRESS ENDS AND A NEW CONGRESS BEGINS

Createspace. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 30 pages. Dimensions: 11.0in. x 8.5in. x 0.1in. A committee chair serves as the leader of a committee, with responsibility for setting the course and direction of the panel for committee members and the House and for managing a large professional and paraprofessional staff. The senior committee staff should ensure the chairs goals are carried out effectively. Once a committee chair is selected during the post-election transition period, he or she, often in consultation with others, makes a series of decisions and takes a series of actions. Some actions complete a committees duties in the Congress just ending, while other actions are taken in anticipation of the new Congress and then in the new Congress. Some decisions are related to the committees policy calendar; others to the committees administrative functions; others to the chairs responsibilities during committee sessions; others to the role of committee members; others to the relationship with the committees ranking minority member, other chairs, and party leaders; and still others related to subcommittee leaders. Many decisions are made with a deadline imposed by House rules. Specifically, a committee chair controls the selection of committee staff, authorizes expenditures from the committee budget, establishes operational and ethics policies, determines committee travel allocations, decides the content of the committee website, and is responsible for administration of the committees rooms, paperwork, and other operations. Most committees entrust the drafting of the budget to the committee chair, although a committees minority party members seek to ensure that they receive an appropriate allocation of resources. Before the chair introduces a funding resolution, the committee approves the chairs draft budget. The House requires its committees to adopt committee rules in an open session and to publish those rules in the Congressional Record and...
