Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Miscellaneous Essays on Economic Entomology: By the State Entomologist and His Entomological Assistants A recent opinion of the Attorney General makes it doubtful whether the State Entomologist of Illinois has a right, under the laws referring to that office (to some extent inconsistent and conflicting), to prepare any other than a biennial report; and a change in practice of the State Board of Contracts leaves no doubt whatever that a report published this year could not be illustrated. As an elaborate monograph of insects injurious to Indian corn was intended as the principal part of my entomological report for 1885, and as this article certainly should not be published without a large number of excellent figures, I have decided, under existing circumstances, not only to withhold this paper, but also to refrain from presenting any formal report for 1885, leaving it to the State Legislature to provide for the proper illustration of the reports hereafter, and to remove the present inconsistencies of the law. Unwilling, however, that the work of the office for the past year should be without representation in the Transactions of the State Board of Agriculture, with which the entomological report has been annually published for the last ten years, I have submitted to the Board, at the request of its Secretary, C. F. Mills, Esq., the following miscellaneous essays on economic entomology, summarizing the results of such part of our operations as may well be published without cuts. A running account of the principal entomological events and observations of the year is followed by a somewhat elaborate report of experiments with insecticides for the codling moth and curculios in apple orchards;...
