Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Think about famous divorce cases that hit the headlines. Yes, she got millions of dollars. But the lawyers also got millions of dollars. Sure, the husband paid both his and her legal fees, but every dollar that went to the attorneys and the accountants, appraisers, and other expert witnesses, was a dollar gone from the marital pot. What if, instead of the soap opera court litigated divorce, wife had communicated and negotiated with husband for a business partnership dissolution? 1.Both parties would have more money. 2.There would be less acrimony, less stain on everyone, including the kids. In order to successfully divorce with a business approach, you need: 1.An attitude adjustment from divorce to dissolution, from soap opera to business, from win-lose to win-win. 2.Business oriented attorneys and advisers. 3.A basic understanding of business, finance, and accounting. 4.Knowledge of both business and inter-personal communication techniques. 5.Contracts and agreements that pass muster business-wise in that they are clear, easily enforceable, and even-handed. That s what Divorce with a Pen, Not a Sword advocates and teaches- with...
