By 1839 this book was the standard textbook for learning the Constitution in American classrooms. Written as a catechism in question and answer format, Stansbury's 1828 edition contains 332 Questions/Answers on the Constitution with step by step commentary on all of the important features of a government of law and not of men. The Catechism was first used in the early 1800s for school children but should be required reading in every school today. It is an excellent way to re-acquaint you with the nature and benefit of strict constitutional government. An ignorant people are easily betrayed, and a wicked people can never be ruled by the mild influence of their own laws. - Arthur J. Stansbury.
