Excerpt: . examination of his books, and he is likely to be arrested and fined as a profiteer. Requa, I would just as soon repudiate my American citizenship and go over to the Germans and try to secure the commercial business of which they have been stripped by the war, as to be associated with your father in a business which he has apparently conducted for his own selfish profit while other men have been fighting for the world s life. Now, Requa Randall, like other girls, daughters of rich men in America, who know nothing of the intricate affairs of business, if she ever thought of it at all, thought of it as a source of her physical happiness. And her father was to her a kind, indulgent, affectionate father. Like a blow on her heart, here stood her lover, the person she loved...
