The University of North Carolina Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 1st New edition. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Behind the Scenes is the life story of Elizabeth Keckley, a shrewd entrepreneur who, while enslaved, raised enough money to purchase freedom for herself and her son. Keckley moved to Washington, D.C., where she worked as a seamstress and dressmaker for the wives of influential politicians. She eventually became a close confidante of Mary Todd Lincoln. Several years after President Lincoln s assassination, when Mrs. Lincoln s financial situation had worsened, Keckley helped organize an auction of the former first lady s dresses, eliciting strong criticism from members of the Washington elite. Behind the Scenes is, therefore, both a slave narrative and Keckley s attempt to defend the motives behind the auction. However, the book s publication prompted an even greater public outcry, with the added racial subtext of white society s disdain for Keckley s audacity in publishing details of the Lincolns private lives. Keckley s dressmaking business failed, the Lincoln family cut all ties with her, and she lived out her final days in a home for the indigent. Scholars have acknowledged the book s valuable account of slave life as well as its intimate view into the Lincoln White House. Biographers of the Lincolns have quoted extensively from Keckley s text. A DOCSOUTH BOOK.
