Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Mountain Miracle is a story of both physical strength and strength of character. It is a story of deep friendships and loyalty. A perfect example of love thy neighbor and what can be accomplished while working along the side of others toward a common purpose. Kirsten Thorne is recently divorced. She is all alone in the world yet again. Both of her parents are dead and she has no other family to spend the holidays with. She is questioning her choices in life and wonders where she will go now. She wonders if she would have made better choices if her mother hadn t died when she was so young. Kirsten decides to escape to the solitude of her beloved mountains and her retreat in Murray Falls over the two-week school break. She packs her SUV and leaves Lawrence, North Dakota behind in search of some answers. Kirsten s planned quiet get away turns into much more than she could ever have conceived. With the summer tourists long since gone, the all but deserted hamlet of Murray...
