Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Genealogical Memoir of the Roulhac Family in America As will be readily seen, the greater part of this book is copied from the manuscript memoirs of Francis L. G. Roulhac, to which I have added bits of information gleaned from old letters, Bible records, etc., that were collected years ago, by my grandmother, Mrs. T. B. Slade, of Columbus, Ga. She was a granddaughter of Psalmet Roulhac, who was the first of the name to come to America. It was grandmothers pride of birth, and the principle of noblesse oblige, that she tried to instill into all her descendants, which induced me to save from oblivion to future generations, these, to me, very interesting data concerning our French ancestry. I have tried to give a short sketch of all in the past generations, but of the present, only names and dates, as they are here to speak for themselves. As a historical fact that ought to be recorded, though, I have mentioned the part each took in our civil war. I give the coat of arms, without embellishments, Gregoire on the right, and Roulhac on the left. - Crest, an Earls coronet, or, (gold). Gregoire - on a field, gules, (red) a lion rampant, or: border, an azure field, fleur-de-Hs, or: Roulhac - on a field, azure, three stars, ar, (silver); on a chief, gules, (red) a crescent, or. Outlines and divisions, black. No motto. For convenience, the American branches of the family are divided into three parts, Psalmet, John or Francis Roulhac, being considered theist generation of the part of which he is the ancestor.
