Montgomery Bus Boycott: Women Who Started It (Paperback)

By Jo Ann Gibson Robinson

University of Tennessee Press, United States, 1987. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 148 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The Montgomery Bus Boycott, which ignited the civil rights movement of the 1950s and 1960s, has always been vitally important in southern and black history. With the publication of this book, the boycott becomes a milestone in the history of American women as well. This autobiographical account of the creation of the boycott is the most important document on that highly significant episode since Martin Luther King s own version, Stride Towards Freedom. I feel certain that scholars and students will refer to this unique historical source for generations to come. --J. Mills Thornton, University of Michigan This valuable first-hand account of the historic Montgomery Bus Boycott, written by an important, behind-the-scenes organizer, evokes the emotional intensity of the civil rights struggle. It ought to be required reading for all Americans who value their freedom and the contribution of black women to our history. --Coretta Scott King A sharply remembered addition to the literature on what has become an event of mythic proportions, and a sound primer for those interested in community organizing. The author is scrupulously honest, modest,...
