Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Practical Treatise on Dying Woollen, Cotton and Silk: Including Recipes for Lac Reds and Scarlets Chrome Yellows and Oranges and Prussian Blues on Silks, Cottons and Woollens; With Every Improvement in the Art, Made Since the Year 1828; Also, a Correct Description of Sulphuring Woollens In my last edition I gave an account of a discovery made by Messrs. Wm. Adams Co., of New York, of an improved process of dying black and Prussian blue on calico. I was informed, very recently, by a large dyer of Frankfort, Pennsylvania, that he had adopted the improvement, and had realized by it many hundreds of dollars. Such information is truly encouraging, and I hope many others have experienced results equally beneficial. The discovery consists in oxydizing the iron before applying the coloring matter. I am of the opinion that dying and color-making are altogether the result of oxydizement and de-oxydizement. It has several times gone the rounds of our newspapers, since I published my last edition, that a new blue for woollens had been discovered superior...
