Till I was forced to smite my bounding breast With forceful blow and bid the bold-one rest. Go not with crowds when they to pleasure run, But public joy in private safety shun: When bells, diverted from their true intent, Ring loud for some deluded mortal sent To hear or make long speech in parliament; What time the many, that unruly beast, Roars its rough joy and shares the final feast: Then-heed my counsel, shut thine ears and eyes; A few will hear me--for the few are wise. Not Satans friends, nor Satans self could bear The cautious man who took of souls such care; An interloper, --one who, out of place, Had volunteered upon the side of grace: There was his master ready once a week To give advice; what further need he seek Amen, so be it: -- what had he to do With more than this--twas insolent and new; And some determined on a way to see How frail he was, that so it might not be. First they essayd to tempt our saint to sin, By points of doctrine argued at an inn; Where be might warmly reason, deeply drink, Then lose all power to argue and to think. In vaia they tried; he took the question up, Cleard every doubt, and barely touchd the cup: By many a text he proved his doctrine sound, And lookd in triumph on the tempters round. Next twas their care an artful hiss to find,...
